FANS Workshop

BEYOND THE BASICS: FANS MASTERY FOR CHALLENGING STONE CASES

Hands-On Masterclass at EUSC 2026

Saturday, 3 October 2026 | 14:30 - 15:15 hrs
JW Marriott Hotel Marina, Level 2 | Room 1

Workshop Overview
Take your flexible ureteroscopy skills to the next level with this hands-on masterclass focused on the Flexible and Navigable Suction (FANS) technique for managing challenging stone cases.
Learn advanced techniques to improve access, navigation, and stone clearance in complex anatomies while gaining practical experience through simulator-based training guided by expert faculty.

EXPERT FACULTY

Prof. Yasser Farahat
UAE

Prof. Mohsen Elmekresh
UAE

Learning Objectives

- Identify challenging stone cases suitable for the combined Flexible Ureteroscopy and FANS Technique
- Understand the advantages and limitations of FANS in complex RIRS procedures
- Apply advanced bending, rotation, and access techniques in difficult anatomy
- Recognize and prevent common complications, including:
  - Mucosal injury
  - Instrument damage
  - Stone migration
- Practice navigation techniques on simulators with real-time expert feedback

Who Should Attend?

- Urologists seeking to overcome technical challenges and improve outcomes in complex RIRS cases
- Endourology Fellows with basic flexible ureteroscopy experience preparing for advanced endourological training
